of Rule 13.1.02(2)(b) are to be considered and the dfts have to establish that the alternative venue is significantly better than the one chosen by the pl.

The dfts have failed to do so on this motion.

The pl. resides in Thornhill (York Region) and undertakes to transfer the action to Newmarket - which in my view is the most appropriate venue and with the jurisdiction where ~~the~~ <sup>in the</sup> pl. resides. Further, there is another action arising out of the same mva.

The pl. in that action (Sulchu) agrees to transfer the action to Newmarket so the two actions can be tried together - this seems most sensible.

Last, the majority of the pl's ws (both medical and family) reside in York Region - even if the experts were generally located more in Toronto. It would not change venue given the fact that neither p. resides in Toronto, nor do their families.

The only tangible connection to Toronto is the fact that defendants reside there and the accident occurred in Toronto.

Motion - dismissed.
